PROF. DR. PARAMESWARAN NAIR (CANADA)
PROF. DR. ELISABETH BEL (THE NETHERLANDS)

On behalf of Prof. Dr. Elisabeth Bel, Amsterdam University Medical Center and Dr. Parameswaran Nair, Professor of Medicine, McMaster University & Staff Respiriologist, St Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton, we would like to invite you for our latest Meet the experts webinar on Thursday 10 June 2021 18.00-19.00 hrs. CEST.

During this webinar, which will be chaired by Prof. Elisabeth Bel, Prof. Parameswaran Nair will give a lecture with the title: "Airway autoimmune responses and relevance to management of severe asthma".

He will discuss the management of severe asthma, with a focus on the use of biologics for the T2 high and the so-called T2 low asthma, with particular emphasis on the importance of recognizing airway autoimmune processes to select the appropriate biologics.

Please make sure you don't miss this scientific event which will give you also the opportunity to take part in the Q&A session. The webinar will not be recorded and therefore it will not be available on demand. So don't miss it.
